

By Any Other Name

How well do you know your neighbors?

Ellie and Rex have admired each other quietly for years, but what they don't know could fill a bookstore. Street-crossed love takes the stage, as two writers discover some surprising truths in this warmhearted short story of mistaken identities. Enjoy it as a taste of the Better Late Romance collection – novels featuring lovers who are 50+ years old. It all takes place in Rancho Allegro, California, our sunny SoCal beach town ... where love is ageless.
